

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE ELEVENTH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF FLORIDA, IN AND FOR
DADE COUNTY
SPRING TERM, 1981

CASE NO. 81-1
(Court Administration)

IN RE: AUTHORITY TO SERVE
PROCESS

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
NO. 81-23

It appearing unto the Court that the State Attorney has appointed process servers pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 57-735, General Laws of Florida, and investigators pursuant to the provisions of Section 27.255, Florida Statutes, and it further appearing that such investigators and process servers are authorized to serve any process or court orders in criminal cases and may be authorized to serve such other process and court orders as directed by the court, and it further appearing that the State Attorney has been designated as the Child Support Enforcement Administrator pursuant to order of this Court, and in such capacity has need of authority for her process servers and investigators to serve civil process in conjunction with those duties, and the Court being otherwise fully advised in the premises, it is therefore considered,

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the investigators and process servers employed by the Office of the State Attorney of this Circuit or by the Administrator of the Child Support Enforcement System shall be authorized and are hereby directed to serve such process and court orders in civil cases as may be necessary to effectuate the jurisdiction of this Court in Child Support Enforcement matters.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers, at Miami, Dade County, Florida, this 6th day of August, 1981.

GERALD T. WETHERINGTON
Chief Judge, 11th Judicial Circuit

Janet Reno, State Attorney of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit of Florida and Administrator of the Child Support Enforcement System of Dade County, moves for the entry of the above order.
