

THE ELEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA

CASE NO. 22-01
(Court Administration)

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
NO. 22-09

IN RE: PROBATION/COMMUNITY
CONTROL, COST OF SUPERVISION

WHEREAS, Section 948.09, Florida Statutes, provides that any person ordered by the Court to be placed on probation, drug offender probation, or community control, “must, as a condition of any placement, pay the department a total sum of money equal to the total month or portion of a month of supervision times the Court-Ordered amount, but not to exceed the actual per diem cost of the supervision;” and

WHEREAS, to ensure the proper and efficient administration of justice, it has been determined that all offenders should bear to the extent possible the cost of supervision to minimize the economic impact on the taxpayers of the State of Florida; and

WHEREAS, in accordance with Samuel Joshua Paris v. State of Florida, (Fla. 4th DCA 2022), the defendant, prior to entering a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, should be aware of the cost of supervision if probation is to be imposed.

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to the authority vested in me by Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.215, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

Unless otherwise exempted or ordered by the Court, every defendant placed on probation or community control by the County or Circuit Court in and for Miami-Dade County, Florida shall pay the sum of $55.00 per month as and for the cost of supervision for probation and/or community control.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers at Miami-Dade County, Florida, this 10TH day of May 2022.

NUSHIN G. SAYFIE, CHIEF JUDGE
ELEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF FLORIDA
