

THE ELEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT,
DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA

CASE NO. 02-1
(Court Administration)

IN RE: DESIGNATION OF IMPROV
TRAFFIC SCHOOLS TO OFFER
AGGRESSIVE DRIVER COURSE

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
NO. 02-01(A1)

(Amends AO No. 02-01, dated January 2, 2002)

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Florida Aggressive Careless Driving Bill, effective October 1, 2001, as set forth in Section 316. 1923, Florida Statutes, the legislature has defined "aggressive careless driving" as committing two or more of certain prescribed acts simultaneously or in succession; and

WHEREAS, it has been determined that it would be in the best interest of the public to change the attitudes and behavior of aggressive drivers by legally requiring the drivers to attend an eight-hour course devoted to fostering such attitudinal and behavioral changes; and

WHEREAS, the Improv Traffic Schools offer such a comprehensive eight-hour course to which aggressive drivers may be referred, which course has passed independent academic peer review and received the approval of one of the nation's leading analyst of educational and training programs of this nature;

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to the authority vested in me as Chief Judge of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit of Florida under Rule 2.050 of the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, I do hereby designate the Improv Traffic Schools as schools to offer the herein referenced comprehensive eight-hour course to which aggressive drivers may be referred, at the discretion of the Judges and Hearing Officers of this Circuit.

Except as amended herein, Administrative Order No. 02-01, dated January 2, 2002, shall remain in full force and effect.

This Order shall take effect immediately.

DONE AND ORDERED in chambers at Miami-Dade County, Florida, this __18__ day of January, 2002.

JOSEPH P. FARINA, CHIEF JUDGE
ELEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF FLORIDA
